Do you have at least two years' full-time ELT experience and a full university degree?

If your answer to the above question was “yes”, you can apply for an A.S.Hornby Educational Trust scholarship to study for Masters in ELT at the University of Warwick in the UK between October 2016 and September 2017.

The deadline for receipt of application forms is 29th February 2016.

The recruitment process for the A.S.Hornby Educational Trust scholarships for study in the UK between October 2016 and September 2017 has started. The deadline for receipt of applications is 17.00 UK time on 29th February 2016. The A.S.Hornby Educational Trust scholarships are awarded every year to English language teachers from outside the UK to study for Masters in ELT at the University of Warwick.

The Trust was set up by A.S.Hornby in 1961 to support English language teaching worldwide. A.S.Hornby had a distinguished career in English language teaching and developed the Oxford Advanced Learners' Dictionary, which is still published in its 8th edition by Oxford University Press. The Trust is a registered charity in the UK.

The scholarships fund study on the one-year Masters in ELT at the University of Warwick

- The scholarships cover all the costs in the UK including a monthly stipend to cover accommodation and living expenses, tuition fees, and return air tickets, visa and IELTS test costs
- Eligible applicants for the scholarship award must have at least two years' full-time ELT experience and a full university degree, and must be a citizen of an eligible country. The Hornby Scholarships are intended to support experienced English language teachers who have the potential to make a significant future contribution to English language teaching and teachers in their countries
- Applicants are selected by a four-stage process. In the first stage, the quality of the application form is assessed. In the second stage, selected applicants are invited for interview at the British Council office in their country of origin. In the third stage, selected applicants apply to the university. In the fourth stage, the applicant is accepted by the university. Only at this stage is the scholarship award is confirmed with the applicant.
